Grand Tour

A Journey Through the Young Poetry of Europe with Jan Wagner and Federico Italiano

Europe is alive and well — maybe not so much as regards its difficult politics, but all the more as a continent with a young and incredibly lively poetry scene. Witness the new anthology »Grand Tour«. Jan Wagner and Federico Italiano have collected the polyphony of this lyrical cosmos on seven virtual voyages through Europe. Now they are embarking on a journey to visit twelve literary places between Brussels and Belgrade, Leukerbad and Lviv, Rome and Copenhagen. They will conduct readings and discussions there with many poets represented in »Grand Tour«. The German Academy for Language and Literature thanks all collaborators, supporters and partners who have made possible this vast poetic exchange.

The reading tour begins in March 2019 and ends in September 2020. The exact event date, time of day and venue can be found on the respective websites.
